

ABOUT

I am a junior golfer and a December 2025 high school graduate from Buenos Aires, Argentina. My goal is to enroll in an American college in Fall 2027 and be part of a golf program where I can learn, compete, and grow alongside strong teammates while pursuing my degree.

Chipping and putting are among the strongest areas of my game, along with my positive mindset and strong emotional control. I aim to contribute to a collegiate team as a supportive and reliable teammate with a genuine desire to elevate both my performance and those around me.
