ABOUT

I am a December 2025 high school graduate and competitive junior golfer from Buenos Aires, Argentina, seeking to enroll in an American college in Fall 2027. My goal is to compete for a strong collegiate golf program while continuing to develop my game and prepare for both academic and athletic life in the United States.

I am a disciplined, positive, and highly committed individual who enjoys competing under pressure. I have placed a strong emphasis on mindset and emotional regulation, and I am proud to see that work translating into consistent performance on the course. The strengths of my game are my accuracy off the tee and my short game.
