

ABOUT

I am a junior golfer from Argentina seeking the opportunity to compete at the collegiate level while pursuing a degree I am passionate about. My goal is to continue growing as both a student and an athlete by improving my golf game and contributing to a competitive team. I am a disciplined, responsible, and consistent individual who is committed to continuous improvement.

One of my greatest strengths is my patience on the course. I stay calm under pressure, make smart decisions, and remain composed when facing challenges. I believe I can contribute to a college golf program through my work ethic, positive attitude, and team-first mindset, supporting my teammates while striving to help the team succeed.
