

ABOUT

I am a dedicated junior golfer and high school student from Mar del Plata, Argentina, seeking to enroll in an American university in Fall 2027 and compete at the collegiate level. My focus is on continuous development through competition, earning a WAGR ranking, and climbing the national ranks.

My strengths include putting (averaging 29 putts per round), consistency off the tee, and strong short-iron play. I bring perseverance, resilience, and emotional control under pressure, allowing me to perform in competitive environments. I enjoy team golf and contribute through a strong competitive spirit, solidarity, and commitment to shared success.
