

ABOUT

I am a junior golfer from La Rioja, Argentina, who has developed a true passion for the game over the past two years. Since I started playing, I have been committed to improving every aspect of my game and lowering my scores through consistent practice and training. With the support of my coaches, I am working hard to achieve my goal of earning a spot on a collegiate golf team in the United States while pursuing a university education.

I am highly competitive, focused, and determined to do whatever it takes to continue developing as a golfer and as a person. I am excited about the opportunity to represent a university, contribute to a successful team, and compete at the collegiate level.
